

ALLWAYS

A GUIDE TO SUPPORTING ALL LEARNERS IN ALL WAYS ALWAYS.

HOW THE LEARNING DIVERSITY TEAM WORKS CLOSELY WITH SCHOOLS

- psychologists
- speech pathologists
- learning consultants
- education officers
- occupational therapists

- oral language and communication
- social and emotional wellbeing
- learning difficulties and disorders
- intervention
- autism
- positive behaviour support
- giftedness
- physical and chronic health concerns
- hearing and vision impairment
- Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander student needs
- new arrivals and refugees
- English as an additional language

- personalised learning plans
- educational adjustments
- health management plans
- behaviour support plans
- safety plans
- risk assessments
- cultural safety plans
- program support group meetings
- assessments
- consultations

- schools
- school leaders
- teachers
- learning support officers
- parents
- universities
- external service providers
- community groups
- research institutes

Please contact your Learning Consultant – Diversity at Melbourne Archdiocese Catholic Schools or one of the four regional offices for more information on supporting all learners, in all ways, always.